DEDICATION

MR. LEE M. MITCHELL

In appreciation of your sincere efforts in both teaching and counseling, the Annual Staff and Senior Class, the class of 1963, proudly dedicate this, the thirty-seventh edition of the TROJAN, to you . . .

Mr. Lee M. Mitchell

Mr. Mitchell has been in the Troy School System for a period of eight years, and has been in the teaching profession for thirty-three years. During this time he has devoted himself to the advancement of students at all levels. He is a jack-of-all-trades and is a most valuable asset to the high school. His work includes science teaching, shop teaching, and guidance counseling.

As Dean of Boys, he is confronted with many of the problems that occur to the college-bound and the non-college bound students at Troy High School. His other activities include, Student Council advising, Stage crew supervising and general work in the Administration.

It is an honor to pay tribute to the outstanding work Mr. Mitchell has done to further the education of the young people of America. This dedication is only one tribute to his excellence.

Assistant Editor, Elaine Stryker presents bouquet to Mrs. Mitchell and congratulates Mr. Mitchell at Senior Dinner.

Editor, Jim Morris congratulates Mr. Mitchell after dedication speech at the Senior Dinner.

Mr. Mitchell recognizes stage crew members.

A familiar foursome

MR. FRED B. PETTAY

After thirty-seven years of faithful teaching at Troy High School Mr. Fred Pettay has announced his retirement. During this period of years he has taught Science and Biology, has been Senior Advisor since 1929, and was the Annual Staff Advisor for about thirty-three years. He has been a true friend to all students who have known him and will be missed by all.

A familiar sight, Mr. Pettay and his students.

Good-bye

CLASS HISTORY

WE, '63

We first came together at Van Cleve Prep,
To us it was more than our very first step
Into the world with banners furled.

We worked and studied our Ohio Hist.,
At the end of the year we made a very long list
For freshman year—no cheer here.

Should we take Espanol or Latin I,
College Prep or home ec? Done!
The decision's made for 9th grade.

September second was the fateful day,
We entered school as green as hay,
On that date in '58.

Now, four years later we embark
On a long, rough journey, not a lark,
Not cool like high school.

Before we leave, remember then
The things we did way back when.
Do you suppose that our past will last?

Into. Science all of a sudden,
Vesper pushed the panic button.
But enough of rantrums and tantrums.

Freshman year we were naive.
We soon changed that to joie de vivre.
Anyone have a bug net to let?

As sophs, we were very darium,
Remember when Vaughn dove in the aquarium?
And for a whopper—remember Carla's grasshoppers?

That was the year Bill Hall came,
And started the Satanics that brought him fame,
A good drum major, too, we'll wager.

We put Finn and Scarff on varsity,
Chose Lynn, Mary and Mikie to cheer sans sparsity,
And three of our bettermen (Ron, Ned, Rice) were football lettermen.

That was the summer we learned to drive.
It's almost amazing that we're still alive.
If you don't believe that, ask Mikie, Lynn and Mary Pat.

We joyfully spent a summer without bugs,
But how did the gleesome threesome get a fireplug?
Ob and Shule and Jack were made to put it back.

Junior year meant chemistry,
Especially for the brothers Curie.
Remember Mr. Farrell with his hand in the barrel?

Crash McClure rode once more.
For burning Jim J's pants, Losh saw the door.
Is it hard to guess why Mr. Houck left?

We'll all remember Mr. West,
And the Trojannaires that he loved best.
That was the last year for the group we loved to hear.

We knew that we had talent before
But the truth came out with Oblinger's pinafore.
McClure sure buttered up Buttercup.

Toward spring we worked on the really big dance.
The "Island Holiday" gave us our chance
To keep the secret but we leaked it.

Then our first Senior Chapel and we saw them leave.
The new Senior Class ! ! ! Who had time to grieve?
Down with '62 and up with the new!

Our summer was sane, our laughs were hearty,
Then there came our first Senior party.
We were at last together a class.

With Lowell on Council and John at the helm
And Don and Jean and Sandy, well
Our officers—I'm at loss for words.

Working concessions sure made money.
This annual will definitely be a honey.
But we looked mighty forlorn without bags for popcorn.

"School Spirit!" they said, "Cheer at the games!"
Who offers to help? Why, Mary Jane.
And this is how we have Block-T now.

After Christmas and New Year's Evening,
We began to think about leaving.
We'll shed a tear for our senior year.

About that time we won the MVL
In the court our boys fought like Trojans.
U.D. was a jumpin' joint when we beat Fairmont by only one point.

Next on the list was the Senior Play.
How can we ever forget—Jon, Lana, John, Sue, Steve, Carol, Rick,
Janie, Pat, Tom, Don, Charlie, Jim, Elaine, Bill, JoAnn, Mike,
Mary Jane, Deans, Tom, Jim, Mike, Karen, Judy, John, Richard, Dennis,
Carla, Martha, Sue, Julia, Claudia, Ruthie, Paul, Don, Eldon,
Marcy, Mike, Barb, Ethel, Doranne, Tony, Gareth, Bev, Jenny, Lowell, and Ron
Even to this day,
And a record this for the longest kiss.

And about a month after the play,
We began plans for government day.
We had a penchant for conventions.

The parties were S.H.A.P.E. and V.I.P.
And the voters invested in prosperity.
Thirteen to four—could they ask for more?

In spring sports this year we have the M.V.L.
In golf and tennis—well, well, well.
Spirits damp? 3 out of 5 trophies prove us the champ.

As each day passes, prom draws nearer.
The secrets out. The world'll be here.
The juniors couldn't do it and we knew it.

Soon our Senior Chapel and our last day,
And, before we go our separate ways,
To jobs in school and plants and banks, we would like to say thanks.

TROY HIGH STUDENT COUNCIL 1962-63

Advisors: Mr. Mitchell, Mr. Oliver, Miss Thompson,Mr. Hoffman.

The Student Council of Troy High is an organization which gives students the opportunity to participate in school government. In the early fall, two members are elected from each home room; one a regular, and one an alternate. The regulars then assemble with the president, who has been elected the previous year, to organize. Under the expert guidance of the deans, the council plans many social functions, considers problems facing the student body, and sets general standards for the rest of the school. The student council members must work diligently on many projects, such as the student council stand and parties, but the year is not one without compensations. The picnic at the end of the year for all members and advisors completes a very full year. The student body was extremely fortunate in having such an efficient student council this year.

This year's Junior Cabinet was composed of the class officers, and Susie Wilson, Patty King, Carol Black, Mary Harrod, Cheryl Clingan, Nancy Reiman, and Carol Somers. The main function of this group is to plan a successful and memorable Junior-Senior Prom. Work on this year's prom started seven months before the big day, and the Juniors have put in many long hours of work.

Junior cabinet also plans the Junior Career Day, which is held annually. Letters are sent to the various businesses to insure their support and approval of this event. This group also acts as a governing body for the Junior class. They discuss all matters of concern carefully and consider possible solutions. This year the Junior Cabinet did an excellent job.

THE DANCE

HOMECOMING 1962

Throughout the school year there are many events which stand out and above all others. One of the most colorful and exciting of these events is Homecoming. During the fall of each school year, the Homecoming Queen and her court are chosen in a special meeting of the senior class. At this year's election Miss Sandy Wilson was chosen to reign as the Trojan Queen for 1962 with the aid of her court, consisting of Miss Julia Rasor, Miss Lynne Woodrow, Miss Jane Cochran, Miss Cheryl Pitsenbarger, and Miss Jean Hamilton.

Finally, on October 19, 1962, prior to the Miami Valley League contest between Troy and Greenville, the coronation was held and Sandy Wilson was officially crowned Troy High School Homecoming Queen for 1962 by Co-Captain Dallas Billing. Her Majesty and her court thrilled as the mighty Trojans romped over the Green Wave, 30-0.

The following evening the royalty was honored at the annual Homecoming Dance which is sponsored by the senior class. The Wren Irwin Combo provided enjoyable music for the pleasure of all attending.

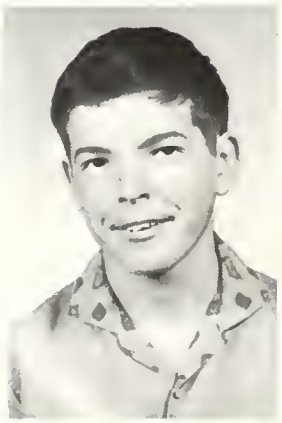
IN MEMORY

MRS GENEVIEVE ALLEN

The City of Troy and the students of Troy High School lost a great friend and a wonderful person when Mrs. Genevieve Allen, school nurse, died suddenly earlier this year. Mrs. Allen served the pupils in the Troy school system for more than twenty-five years, and in that time was faced with the trying task of keeping a great number of students in good health.

All who knew Mrs. Allen had nothing but the deepest respect for her, for she was truly a fine person. We of the Annual Staff of 1963 feel fortunate to be able to take this space to pay the greatest respect to her memory.



FRANKLIN BROWN JR. — Died in a tragic accident in 1962, during his sophomore year. He was a student in good standing with his teachers and his fellow classmates. The 1963 TROJAN wishes to express a special tribute to his memory.

And then there was the day that we took pictures of the golf team.

So you don't wan't your picture taken huh . . .

MR. HOMER ENGLISH

The Annual Staff of 1963 would like to express its sincerest appreciation to Mr. Homer English for his invaluable services. His fine photography has enriched the pages of previous annuals, and the 1963 TROJAN is no exception to this tradition. It has been indeed, an honor and a privilege to work side by side with this world-famous lensman, who has given up much of his valuable time, so that we might bring to you a better yearbook.
